

How to Host a Teen Party

- Agree on a guest list-don't admit party crashers
- Discuss the ground rules with your child before the party
- Encourage your teen to plan the party with a responsible friend that he/she will have support from if problems arise

- Brainstorm fun activities for the party
- If a guest brings alcohol into your house, ask him/her to leave
- Serve plenty of snacks and non-alcoholic drinks
- Be visible and available-but don't join the party
